TU IN THOSE WERE THE DAYS

Words and Music by GENE RASKIN

The formula for today's hit is Twiggy plus Paul McCartney equals Mary Hopkin. It all started not very long ago when Twiggy saw Mary on a Welsh television amateur hour. She telephoned Paul and told him all about the young singer. Paul invited Mary to London for an audition. He was enchanted by the eighteen year old singer from Pontardawe, Wales and had her signed up by Apple Records (the Beatles own recording company). He also produced her first record and her first hit "THOSE WERE THE DAYS."

What's your favorite song these days?
Send your request to the Entertainment
Editor of this newspaper. We'll publish the most popular tunes.

DeWayne Baker, contractor, reported to Sheriff Dorsie A. Likens Wednesday that vandals painted signs on his storage buildings southeast of Auburn sometime Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning. The sheriff said the vandals painted signs in red and black which read "Auburn Red Devils '61". Auburn police reported earlier that vandals painted the sign at the Auburn Wholesale Hardware on North Indiana avenue.

AUBURN JUNIOR HIGH TEAM WINS CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Victory Over Kendallville came in Thrilling Overtime Period at Alumni Gym Thursday Evening

The Auburn Junior high basketball team copped championship honors in the invitational tourney held at Alumni gym Thursday evening but they did it the hard way. The Kendallville Junior high, an easy victim of Auburn several weeks ago, forced the Auburn team into overtime before they won by a 35-33 score.

Principal Fred Zeigler of Auburn presented the winners with the trophy and the lads cut down the nets. Mr. Zeigler complimented each of the four teams on their good sportsmanship and hard play.

This ends the season for the Auburn team, giving them a 13-4 record for the season.

Coach Lynn Holsinger had trouble settling his Auburn team and only in the last five minutes did they play the type of ball of which they are capable. Their defense was spotty; they continually tipped the ball to their opponents on jump ball situations and they were not shooting the ball right when they had opportunities to score.

The Auburn players trailed after the first six-minute period, 4-6, but out-manuevered their opponents slightly in the second stanza to lead at the half, 12 to 10. The best Auburn could get in the third period was two free throws as Kendallville pushed back into the lead at 17-14. Both teams were desperate in the fourth period and with a minute to go, Auburn trailed by 3 at 26-23.

Coach Lynn Holsinger ordered a press put on the Kendallville team and Dave Aschleman intercepted a pass. He fired to Mike McKinley, who went in for the layup. The Kendallville team came down for a shot but was fouled. When they missed the free throw, Auburn got the ball and McKinley went in for another layup and three seconds remained. The officials ruled out the basket and gave McKinley a free throw. He hit the first to tie the score and missed the bonus shot and the game went into overtime.

Kendallville stole the tip and went down for a basket to take the lead but Auburn soon tied it up and went ahead to stay. Phil Croy got two baskets and Gaskill and Puro one each in the overtime, in addition to a free throw by McKinley.

The summary:

FIFTY-SIX AT REUNION OF AN AUBURN CLASS

Fifty-six people, including 37 class members, attended the first reunion of the Class of 1961 of Auburn High School held on Sunday, July 31, at Eckhart Park in Auburn.

A potluck dinner was enjoyed by 28 members and their families with more members arriving after dinner. A short business meeting followed. Kay Miller Hurni thanked her reunion committee consisting of Helen Dilley Gerig, Joe Drerup, Tom Smith, Gladwyn Hay, Phil Woodcox and Doug Scott for their help. Tom Smith, class president, then conducted an election of officers with the following results: President, Gladwyn Hay; vice-president, Don Steininger; secretary, Helen Dilley Gerig; treasurer, Mickie Ochstein Ryncarson.

The new president, Gladwyn Hay, then conducted a discussion of the next reunion. It was decided to hold another one in five years. It was noted that Sandy Shook Dykhuizen of Boston, Mass., came the farthest distance and Judi Kruse Sellnow of Rome, New York, was second.

The meeting was adjourned and a social hour followed.

My greatest accomplishment is my 4 children. I am one of the lucky ones, I got to stay at home and be involved in their lives. I was a room mother at school, brownie and scout leader and bleacher mom during several sports events. I also bowled on two leagues for over 25 years. I am active in my church serving on Worship committee, search committee board of directors, Deacon & Deaconess. I have traveled all over the U.S., Canada & Mexico including 3 times to Hawaii. I am blessed to have 5 great loving grandkids.

CHEVY CORVAIR

A paragraph for 50 years of living by what measure will we be known when the last day come and gone? The real hope is that we will have left one small corner of the world a little better for our having been there and those who follow will be blessed by our life.

A degree of Bachelor of Science in Education found me living in Boston, studying in Seminary in the late 60's. I spent time as a Youth Worker, followed by my field education time at historic Old South Church in Kenmore Square in Boston. I loved being near the ocean so armed with my Masters of Divinity I went looking for a job in the East.

God has a way of helping us to see his plan. Remember poetry in Junior English, Frost's "two roads diverged in a yellow wood?" I "took the path less traveled by", and became the pastor of Morningside and Mt. Olive U. Methodist churches in Muncie, Indiana. Knowing how "way leads on to way" the stage was set for me to meet and marry A. H. S. graduate John Manon, and "that has made all the difference."

It has been great to have these 40 years with him and share in the greatest blessing of raising our children Angie, Molly, John and Justin. Along with teaching the children about God's world, life has been occupied with church activities, heading the Christian Literacy Council, Youth Group sponsors, band and soccer parents. Above all we have sought to fulfill our wedding song, "one in the Spirit, one in the Lord working side by side, so they'll know we are Christians by our love."

Late 70's I was Assistant to the Pastor at Auburn Presbyterian Church. I am currently a Ruling Elder at St. Andrew EPC, serve as Administrative Assistant to my husband John, who is Clerk Treasurer of the Presbytery of the Midwest, work as a Homemaker for the DeKalb Council on Aging, and best of all enjoy time with our children which include spouses, David, Joni, and Amber as well as our two granddaughters, Katrina and Cassidy!

Approaching this 50th celebration, we all have been taking stock of who we are and where we have been. I was fortunate enough to have my Dad, Kelso until 2000, and Mom, Margaret, until last summer at 96. Her death has brought a year of reflecting and remembering Auburn as it was. From pictures and writings the task has been to piece together the anchors which connect us to the past, the people and places who populate the heritage of the Class of 61. Walking the streets of Auburn with the eyes of memory I have found, once again, so many of the experiences which prepared us for May 24, 1961, and 50 years beyond! Happy and sad, may they still anchor us to the Eternal by our Faith that we may enter the next 50 one day at a time.

Wow year of "2011"..Busy year! Herb turned 70; will be married 50 years and 50th class reunion. Where did it go? Time flies! My life from age 18 until now has been great. Herb and I raised two successful children, have four grandchildren ages 23, 20, 14, 10. My father passed away 7 years ago. My mom who is 93 lives with us. Herb retired from Omni Source after 40 years. I have been very busy. We are very fortunate to have our good health. I am back in Auburn for summers and Florida in winter. Hope my classmates have been as fortunate as I am!

I started to work at City National Bank of Auburn IN in 1962. I got married to Steven A. Davis in 1982. I continued to work at City National Bank until we moved to Sturgis MI in 1987. In Sturgis, I worked for Bank One for 8 ½ years and for Key Bank, 1 year. Steve and I were never able to have children. My husband wasn't able to find the kind of job he wanted in Sturgis, so he stated checking on the internet. He was able to find a good job in his field of computers in Rogers, AK. So we moved to Rogers in 1996. I was able to get a job with A. G. Edwards &

Sons and worked there 7 years. I then retired from there when I was 62, in 2005. In 2007 my mother-in-law came to live with us and I was her caregiver until she passed away in 2009. Since then I have been enjoying my retirement and am now trying to pursue my interest in art, drawing, painting, sewing and quilting. P.S. Tell everyone that I said "Hi" and may the Lord bless them and their families.

ODE TO AUBURN HIGH SCHOOL

So many things have been said and written about the AHS/McIntosh complex. Many thoughts and deep feelings have been expressed here tonight at the DeKalb Central School Board meeting, October 20, 2009. The demolition of the McIntosh High School has begun.

On October 13, 2009, Alumni Gymnasium began to be taken apart, brick by brick. That day, or was it the next, as the rain fell from overcast skies, someone wondered if the tears were from Zeke and the boys?

I stand here tonight eight short, yet interminable, days later as one who could do nothing to stop the diesel fumes rising from the engine of a RED and BLACK crane this afternoon! Could do nothing to stop its grasping mouth as it inched up and up toward the very northeast tower of McIntosh High School. Metal jaws began to take bite after bite and sent showers of bricks cascading to the ground - dreams, falling, broken, upon the earth.

Five short hours later I stood with my husband John, on Fifteenth Street looking at the Westward entrance of this grand old lady who had been there all of our lives. Hand in hand, two Auburn High School grads, even now seeing in memory the old wooden doors opening into the heart of this magnificent building. I thanked the Lord for the evening sun, golden, warm, setting her bricks aglow one last time; marking her parapets bold and proud against the azure sky. She was still being guarded by ten lonely sentinels whose leaves are gone - shed this final season as tears to tomorrow of that which will be only a memory.

A last glimpse before I would rush off to a School Board meeting which only yesterday held the hope that McIntosh still could be saved. It has been one final evening to stand vigil here and recall memories of a lifetime built brick upon brick for all who hold her dear, high school, junior high, elementary school. One last memory for everyone who ever walked these halls.

One last snapshot for Kelso Davis and all the kids in all the pictures. One last chalk line on the blackboards for every teacher who gave us the building blocks from which to fashion the foundation of our lives. One last hoop shot for the '49 State Finalist Team and everyone who played any sport including my father-in-law Squirt Manon. One last note for all the musicians who played or sang upon the stages here.

One last Harrah! One final refrain - Fling out that dear old flag of crimson and black. RED and BLACK. We're loyal to you, Auburn High!
